Ok. I don't think I had ever noticed that the 7661 conference room designation had the word "south" in it!

I am pretty sure that you can have Ken's conference room if that would be better.

People already had 7100 reserved for various times throughout the day.

7661 is a PY north building conference room that is in the south part of the building, so it is listed in the room directory as PYN 7661 south.

RTP is set with their computers. I'll have mine. Do we have a volunteer for a 2nd computer here in PY?
